

apple :: pear :: cheese

taste

WHEN

October 3, 2010
Sunday, 1-4pm

WHERE

Gina's Orchard at Bishop's Ranch
5297 Westside Road, Healdsburg, CA

This orchard of ancient Gravenstein trees is south of Healdsburg in a beautiful streamside setting, complete with a large meadow area for our gathering. Entrance is one driveway south of sign marked "El Rancho del Obispo/Bishop's Ranch."

DETAILS

- Taste rare varieties of apples and pears
- Sample local artisan cheeses
- Talk to the experts about growing, cooking, eating, and preserving different varieties

Admission

$20 general
$10 organization members
kids under 13 half price

A fundraiser for CAFF's North Coast Chapter biological farming programs

For more information, contact Wendy Krupnick at 707.544.4582

Organized by Community Alliance with Family Farmers, North Coast Chapter, the Russian River Slow Food Convivium and California Rare Fruit Growers, Redwood Empire Chapter, supporting CAFF's upcoming conference, The Integrated Vineyard.
Visit the CAFF website for details: www.caff.org/northcoast.shtml